ALFRED-WEBER INSTITUTE FOR ECONOMICS

Chair of Empirical Economics

Prof. Dr. Christian Conrad

July 15, 2022

The Alfred-Weber Institute at Heidelberg University invites applications for a Post-Doc position in Financial or Macro Econometrics.

The position (E13 TV-L, 100%) is available from October 2022 onward. The contract will initially be for one year and can be extended for at least another year. The German Higher Education Law regulates the salary, which will be set according to the E13 TV-L scheme. Funds for research visits, conference travel, etc., will be available.

We invite applications from qualified candidates with a research focus on Financial Econometrics, Forecasting, Macro Econometrics, Time Series Econometrics, or Econometric Theory. Applicants are expected to show outstanding commitment to research and should have obtained a Ph.D. when taking up the position or be near completion. The postdoctoral fellow can do independent research in his/her respective fields. There is a teaching obligation of four hours per week during the semester. Applicants should be fluent in English.

The position will be associated with the Chair of Empirical Economics (Professor Christian Conrad) at Heidelberg University and affiliated with the HKMetrics Network for Econometrics and Statistics. The HKMetrics network is a joint initiative of econometricians and statisticians from Heidelberg University, the Karlsruhe Institute of Technology, and the University of Mannheim. Information on the research activities of the network and the chair of empirical economics can be found at:

<https://www.hkmetrics.de> and www.uni-heidelberg.de/conrad.

The University of Heidelberg is an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will be considered. To increase the share of women, applications by female researchers are especially encouraged.

Candidates should send a letter of interest, their CV, a one-page research statement, two letters of recommendation, and a research article to the email below. For more information, please get in touch with Prof. Christian Conrad (christian.conrad@awi.uni-heidelberg.de).
